

Title: Sr. Project Manager

Location: Manchester, NH

Job Description:

Our client in Manchester, NH has an immediate contract opening for a Project Manager. Candidates MUST be able to demonstrate instances where they drove project delivery in fast-paced environments. This position requires experience managing both Agile/Scrum and prototyping/iterative development processes.

Responsibilities:

The successful candidates responsibilities will include:

- Managing all aspects of project delivery including defining project scope, specifying deliverables, estimating project duration and cost, managing project budget, creating detailed project plans and managing change requests
- Leading team through execution of the project plan and schedule
- Coordinating the timely communication of project information, including; status reporting, meeting actions, changes requests, risk reports, issue logs, schedule and budget performance charts, etc.

Job Requirements:

Required Skills

- 8-10 years project management experience delivering projects of varying sizes and significance to the organization
- Broad technical knowledge
- Passion for delivery and customer satisfaction with an enthusiastic, get-it-done attitude and ability to see the big picture
- Excellent communication and facilitation skills
- Ability to manage change by influencing and leading others
- Candidates with backgrounds in business analysis and/or software development will be highly considered.

Contact:

Erik Neenan
erikn@qiconsulting.biz
781-342-5173